The thrilling 13th book in #1 New York Times bestselling author Christine Feehan's paranormal Carpathian/Dark series. They were masters of the darkness, searching through eternity for a mistress of the light . . . Destiny's childhood had been a nightmare of violence and pain until she heard his voice calling out to her. Golden and seductive. The voice of an angel. Nicolae had shown her how to survive, taught her to use her unique gifts, trained her in the ancient art of hunting the vampire. Yet he could not bend her to his will. He could not summon her to him, no matter how great his power. As she battled centuries-old evil in a glittering labyrinth of caverns and crystals, he whispered in her mind, forging an unbreakable bond of trust and need. Only with him can she find the courage to embrace the seductive promise of her. . . Dark Destiny.

The Book about A Little Girl Name Destiny Who Loves To Pray. Expressly teaches parents to teach their children about God and to let them know even at a young age that God would hear them when they pray to him. It's very important to parents to teach their children how to pray. So that if they get in situations and feel their is no hope even at a young age. They will know that they can pray to the true and living God. And he will answer their prayer because Jesus is the answer for our world. The Bible says to bring our children up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. Ephesians 6:4

This book is based on a true story of a girl who grew up in Detroit, Michigan. It's intense and will have you hanging on every last word of the main character Italy Rivers. As she tries to figure out her next move, he is right on her tail and if she doesn't get away this time it could end badly. With no one to protect her she tries to take things into her own hands, only it ends up making her more vulnerable. You would think going to the police would be the best thing to do in a domestic violence situation right. Since that is what everybody always says " why won't you just call the police" well sometimes the police just can't protect you.

Her gift will bring light to a world of darkness... In 2047, the world exists in permanent darkness. Nineteen-year-old Nadine, a student at NYU, works hard to better her family's life in the harsh conditions. When she starts having strange visions of someone named Victor, she tries to ignore the flashes, afraid she might be going insane. But when she bumps into a very real Victor, her entire world shifts. Her visions taking a turn for the worse, Nadine is bombarded with prophecies of eerie fates, unfamiliar gods, sharp-clawed demons... and instructions. Along with the reluctant Victor, she finds her path entwined with yet another man, Micah, who may be able to shed light on her dark revelations. Directed down an unbelievable path of magic and mayhem, the three must unravel clues from the visions in order to restore an ancient creed. The chance to bring sunlight to the world again is in Nadine's gift, but only if the evil forces behind the darkness don't manage to stop her first. Barbara Wentroble inspires women to pursue God's plan of freedom, wholeness and purpose for their lives, citing biblical examples from the lives of Esther, Ruth, Deborah, Mary and others. Wentroble illustrates how learning to live in God's presence and breaking old habits will bring release and healing that will propel women into their inherited place of greatness. Now is the time to rise to your destiny, woman of God! The whole world is in a mess because of the errors of the past and present generation, and many of our innocent young girls are falling prey of the consequences of these errors. They are faced with difficult situations associated with their personalities on daily basis. This book provides answers to many questions they may have in their mind. It will help all young girls to understand whom they are, build their confidence and place a value on their precious life. It is to give them courage they need to say no when they mean no and not to yield to the deceits of those who may desire them rather than loving them and hinder them from becoming whom God destined them to be. There are tons of action adventure elementary school age books out there. I don't see enough of them emphasizing girls as the hero. We need to make sure that 50% of our population grows up knowing they have an internal hero. If we can encourage girls' imagination to see themselves as victors, we are insuring both their own and our own future as they raise strong children of both genders.

From the author of the acclaimed GLORY BE, a novel that celebrates baseball, fast piano, and small-town living in the wake of the Vietnam War. When Theo gets off a bus in Destiny, Florida, he's left behind the only life he's ever known. Now he's got to live with Uncle Raymond, a Vietnam War vet and a loner who wants nothing to do with this long-lost nephew. Thank goodness for Miss Sister Grandersole's Boarding House and Dance School. The piano that sits in Miss Sister's dance hall calls to Theo. He can't wait to play those ivory keys. When Anabel arrives things get even more enticing.
